stealing partridge eggs, and on this ac-count are not beloved by the sportsman. Even poultry, when they stray, as they often will, and lay eggs beyond the confines of the poultry yard, suffer from attacks of squirrels when the mother bird is away. In pine tree districts these little climbers are fond of splitting the pine cones and eating the seeds thereof

But above all things squirrels are fond of fungus They will not have anything to say to the common or garden mushroom, but confidently devour the most yellow and poisonous looking of toadstools that grow in damp woods and fields. They never store these, for they know well that fungi will not keep They devour them greedily as they come to light and revisit the spot as soon as fresh spawn renews the fungus There are, however, many kinds of toadstools that squirrels know to be poisonous, and these they will not door touch - Detroit Free Press.

MR. HANNA UNEASY.

Mr. Hanna has left Washington for Ohio to remain until he or somebody else is elected United States Senator from the Buckeye State. After the six Democrats and six Republicans. holidays he will establish headquarters at Columbus, where cash or approved securities will be paid for votes.

Mr. Hanna is said to be very uneasy. The Ohio election cost him a large sum of money and the election is very Stockholders have forced an entrance uncertain, nevertheless. He is calling to the bank. upon the Administration to assist him and, it is stated, that the friends of the President are not meeting with very much success. It is told that Vice President Hobart and several bule attachments to street cars as Senators called upon Senator Foraker and said that it is necessary for the unity and good of the Republican party, as well as in recognition of his services to the party, that Mr. Hanna be elected Senator from Ohio. Mr. Hobart plainly stated that much of the opposition to Mr. Hanna comes from Senator Foraker and his friends, and, in behalf of Mr. Hanna and the party at large, he asked that Senator Foraker call off those friends. Foraker, who usually has firebrands worked on his coat tails and war written on his browcurbed his impetuosity and stated that his friends are opposing Hanna for personal reasons and not simply to gratify him. It would, therefore, be presumptuous and unwarranted oa his part to mandatorily "call them off." He said he had not attained to that position of bossism where he could telegraph his friends to put their private feelings in their pockets and support Mr. Hanna because he desired them to.

The Vice President threatened to defeat Foraker should be come up for reelection, but Foraker said that if the leaders of the party attempted to defeat him there would not be a Republican Congressman elected in Ohio next

BOSTON GOES DEMOURATIC.

The city of Boston, which gave a Republican majority of 22,000 at the Presidential election a year ago, has elected Josiah M. Quincy Mayor by a majority of over 4,000, defeating Mayor Curits, who was elected two years ago.

who was elected two years ago.

The tide of public opinion seems to have turned against the party which is controlled by trusts, and whose fluancial policy is dictated, according to Senator Chandler who is a good Republican authority, by the Gold Standard Leave of New York It lost Kentucky in November and virtually defeated Hanna in Ohio. McKinley's majority of 268,000 n N w York in 1896 was transformed in 1897 into a Democratic majority of over 50,000. The cities of Chicago and Indianapolis, which gave the Republicans overwhelming majorities in 1896, elected silver Democrata in 1897, and in silver Democrata in 1897, and in D.C General Land office at Washington, States where the Republicans were The following are the sub-divisions described, this year their majority is R 18 E, M D B. & M.—80 acres A C P.A. PRECAUTIONS IN SHIPPING CATTLE.

The Secretary of Agriculture has issued a circular to railroads an i transportation companies generally notifying them that the contagions and infectious disease known as Texas fever exists among cattle through a part of California, Arizona, New Mexico and adjacent States. He says extraordinary care must be taken in the transportation of such cattle, which transportation of such cattle, which are to be transported, fed and watered

Cars containing these cattle are to be placarded, giving notice of the fact that the cattle are diseased, and every place where they have been must be thoroughly disinfected. Permits must be procured to authorize the transportation of diseased cattle and every possible precaution is to be taken to prevent the spread of the disease.

SENATOR WALCOTT of Colorado has threatened to resign his seat in the Senate. He is very indignant at the course of Secretary Gage and claims he misrepresents the administration. The feeling is the outcome of the situation which has developed with respect to the Monetary Commission, of which Mr Walcott is chaiaman, and the position of the Administration. It is believed that the President and his Secretary are at variance or Mr. Walcott has been grossly deceived as to the President's attitude. The situation has become serious enough to cause Mr. Walcott's sympathizers to assert that were it not for causing political disturbances, Mr. Gage would in all probability be invited to retire from the Cabinet.

New York's capitol, which has cost $22,000,000, or $5,000,000 more than the To Build A capitol at Washington, is not large enough to accommodate the State departments and a bill will be introduced to erect an additional building at a cost of $2,000,000

Minister Hoshi of Japan in a conference with Secretary Sherman yesterday assured him that Japan had no protest to enter to the annexation of Hawaii to the United States, but that should the annexation be carried out it was the desire of the Japanese Government to have specific assurance that the interests of that country would be fully protected.

The situation in Chindas regards the course of Great Britain and Germany is assuming a serious aspect. China regards russia as her only friend and confers with that power alone. Russia has demanded the dismissal of the British railroad engineers in Northern Ohina and the German drill instructors now with the Chinese troops will be dismissed and succeeded by Russian officers. Diplomatic complications are imminent and the Chinese Councils are divided on the questions

DESPERADO CLARK.

INALS OF HIS TIME. A Daring and Coolness That Have Seldon Been Equaled-Hanged at Last For Murder-The Refined and Pions Woman Who Mourned Him.

There lived in this city until a few years ago and may be living here still, a frail, careworn little woman whose life had been linked with one of the most unhappy and yet most interesting romances in the annals of this century's crime She was the wife of John Clark, one of the most remarkable crimmals of his time. Although a thorough ly respectable, well educated and high minded woman and a devout member of the church, she lived with him for years, tried her best to reform him, sought to protect him from the officers who were ever on his trail and was faithful to him to the end. Clark was the son of a prosperous business man in Rochester When he was a boy, he figured in all sorts of wild escapades, was arrested several times for small offenses and had developed into a professional crook before he was 20 years old One of his most notable traits was his love of display He was small and slender, with clean cut features and black, curling hair He al ways were a silk hat, a low cut vest, white kid gloves and small, pointed shoes that punched his tiny feet. He also wore several large diamonds on his fingers and shirt front. When he was still very young, but long after his rep ntation had made him a terror to the town, he eloped with his cousin, a beautiful young girl, carefully reared. It was a short honeymoon The authorielleut present for father, brother, hus- ties were too hot on his trail to allow oand or beaux. Becker has a fine line him to prolong his stay with his wife, again on his travels. From that time until his death his visits to his wife were far irpart and uncertain. He was too busy carrying out his bold plans for robbery to stay long in the town.

Jailer John Cawthra of Rochester, who knew Clark well and was present conversation recalled the desperado

"Clark was the nerviest man I ever knew," said the old jailer "When he was on one of his visits in Rochester, he was walking one day through the arcade, right in the center of the town It was crowded with people and they all knew who he was With his gay clothes and handsome face he was very conspicuous He was walking with a girl-he was a great man for the girlsand he was twirling a cigarette in his mouth A big, strapping man passed them, looked back into the girl s face and smiled That angered Clark Without a moment's hesitation he drew a revolver from his pocket and fired The bullet knocked off two of the man's fin gers Clark wiped the revolver with his handkerchief, put it back in his pocket, and, telling the girl to wait a moment, stopped to relight his cigarette. He was as cool as if nothing had happened, and you can bet there was no one around there who dared touch him They knew he was John Clark and that he wouldn t hesitate to fire again on the slightest provocation

"Clark made a great deal of money county this year than for a number of like $30,000 out of Mexico, most of it from a bank He was arrested in one of years The freasurer collected 339 the southern states and lodged in pail than the total vote of the county last a day Later he was caught in this city and locked up in the Tombs. How he The attorneys for Theodore Durrant got out no one knows to this day There were charges enough against him at the have filed a notice, that on next Tuesvenue from the recent order of Judge | Clark well who say he made at least rant the right of citizenship. An ap- ful burglar of his time I well remem ber one night when a business man of Rochester was robbed by him The man's house was on East avenue, the best street of the town Clark discovered that he kept a good sized roll of Pure wines and liquous especialty tank notes in his clothes all the time greatly reduced prices for the next two far into the night, and when Clark ap he discovered the owner in a dressing gown, with his back to the window, reading This discovery, however, did not discourage Clark He went away fandel, 50, 60 and 75 cents per gallon, and came back with a long stick, to 20 cents per bottle or three bottles for which were fastened a string and a hook 50 cents, sweet claret 40 cents per bot- Suddenly the man inside looked up to tie, or three for $1, dry wines 75 cents see his trousers, with his roll of bills in and $1 per gailon, sweet white wines, them, going swiftly through the air and out of the window He must have thought they were bewitched, for he lon, sweet red wine at the same price, could not see for the moment the string Italian wines, purest quality, 75 cents and the stick As soon as he had recovsocially with being one of the three to $1.50 per bottle, whiskies and ered his self possession he ran out to mairiageably clightle young men of brandies at from 60 cents to $1 50 per look for the thief, but it was no use

"Clark was cornered in Rochester at A large assortment of fancy and last He had just returned from one of staple groceries at cut prices. Call at his long tours of burglary through the country He was seen coming out of lowest. the house where his wife lived, and two or three policemen went in pursuit of him When they cornered him in an alley, he turned and shot one of them SEE

"All the time he was in jail awaiting the execution of his sentence to be hanged his wife was a daily visitor She is still a handsome woman, with an low's Soothing Syrup for children teething air of refinement and good breeding about her He was the coolest man I with her selection when she went to all on her and give her the pretty oring as if he enjoyed himself 'Just wait till I huish this smoke and I'm ready," he remarked They let him finish it

"His death broke his poor wife's heart I saw her two or three years afterward, and she was wrinkled and old, and the gray was beginning to come into her hair She drifted to this city, and perhaps she is here yet."-New
